Re: Freedom of Information Act Request: Tracking Number DNFSB FY 19-14

Dear Ms. Best:

This letter responds to your May 30, 2019, Freedom of Information Act request to the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board (tracking number FY 19-14) for copies of records generated between January 1, 2009, and January 1, 2019, that concern the hacker movement/collective, "Anonymous," or the practice of "hacktivism."

A thorough search of the agency's files located twenty-two records that are potentially responsive to your request. Seventeen of those documents originated outside of the DNFSB, and we have referred them to those agencies for review and direct response to you. (Copies attached.) Upon review, I find that the remaining five records, i.e., those that originated in the DNFSB, are responsive to your request and should be released in their entirety. Accordingly, you will find unredacted copies of those five documents attached to this letter.

You have the right to file an administrative appeal within ninety (90) days of your receipt of this letter. Your appeal must be in writing, be clearly marked with the words, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and be addressed as follows:

General Counsel
Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board
625 Indiana Avenue, N.W., Suite 700
Washington, DC 20004

By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and provide the Board an opportunity to review and reconsider both your request and its decision.

If you would like to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you may contact Paul Wilson, our FOIA Public Liaison, at any time before filing an appeal. He can be reached by telephone at (202)-694-7018 (toll free at 800-788-4016) or by e-mail at PaulW@dnfsb.gov.

You may also make use of the dispute-resolution services provided by the Office of Governmental Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration. OGIS provides ombudsman services in disputes between federal agencies and FOIA requesters and can be reached at:
